“Longhorns are like fine art. Each person prefers a different one, for many various and different reasons. The fact that we, as an industry, can't agree on what a Longhorn should look like, might just be our strength, instead of our weakness.”

“There is nothing quite as exhilarating as a great Longhorn auction. When I am bidding on a Longhorn Cow that my mind and heart are set on buying and the price is rising rapidly, the sheer adrenaline rush of the experience is amazing whether I get her bought or not.”

“One man’s Trash is another mans Treasure.”

That one principle pretty well summed up my 32 year career in the retail salvage business. It also holds the key to my faith.”

*The Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found, and hid. In his joy, he goes and sells all that he has, and buys that field.

“Life should be filled with risk. The greater the risk, the greater potential for reward. I don’t want to end my life with regrets that I didn’t take enough risk. Stop playing it safe. Burn the boats, kill the giants, and go climb a mountain. A risk not taken is a reward never realized.”

The Trichotomy of Success

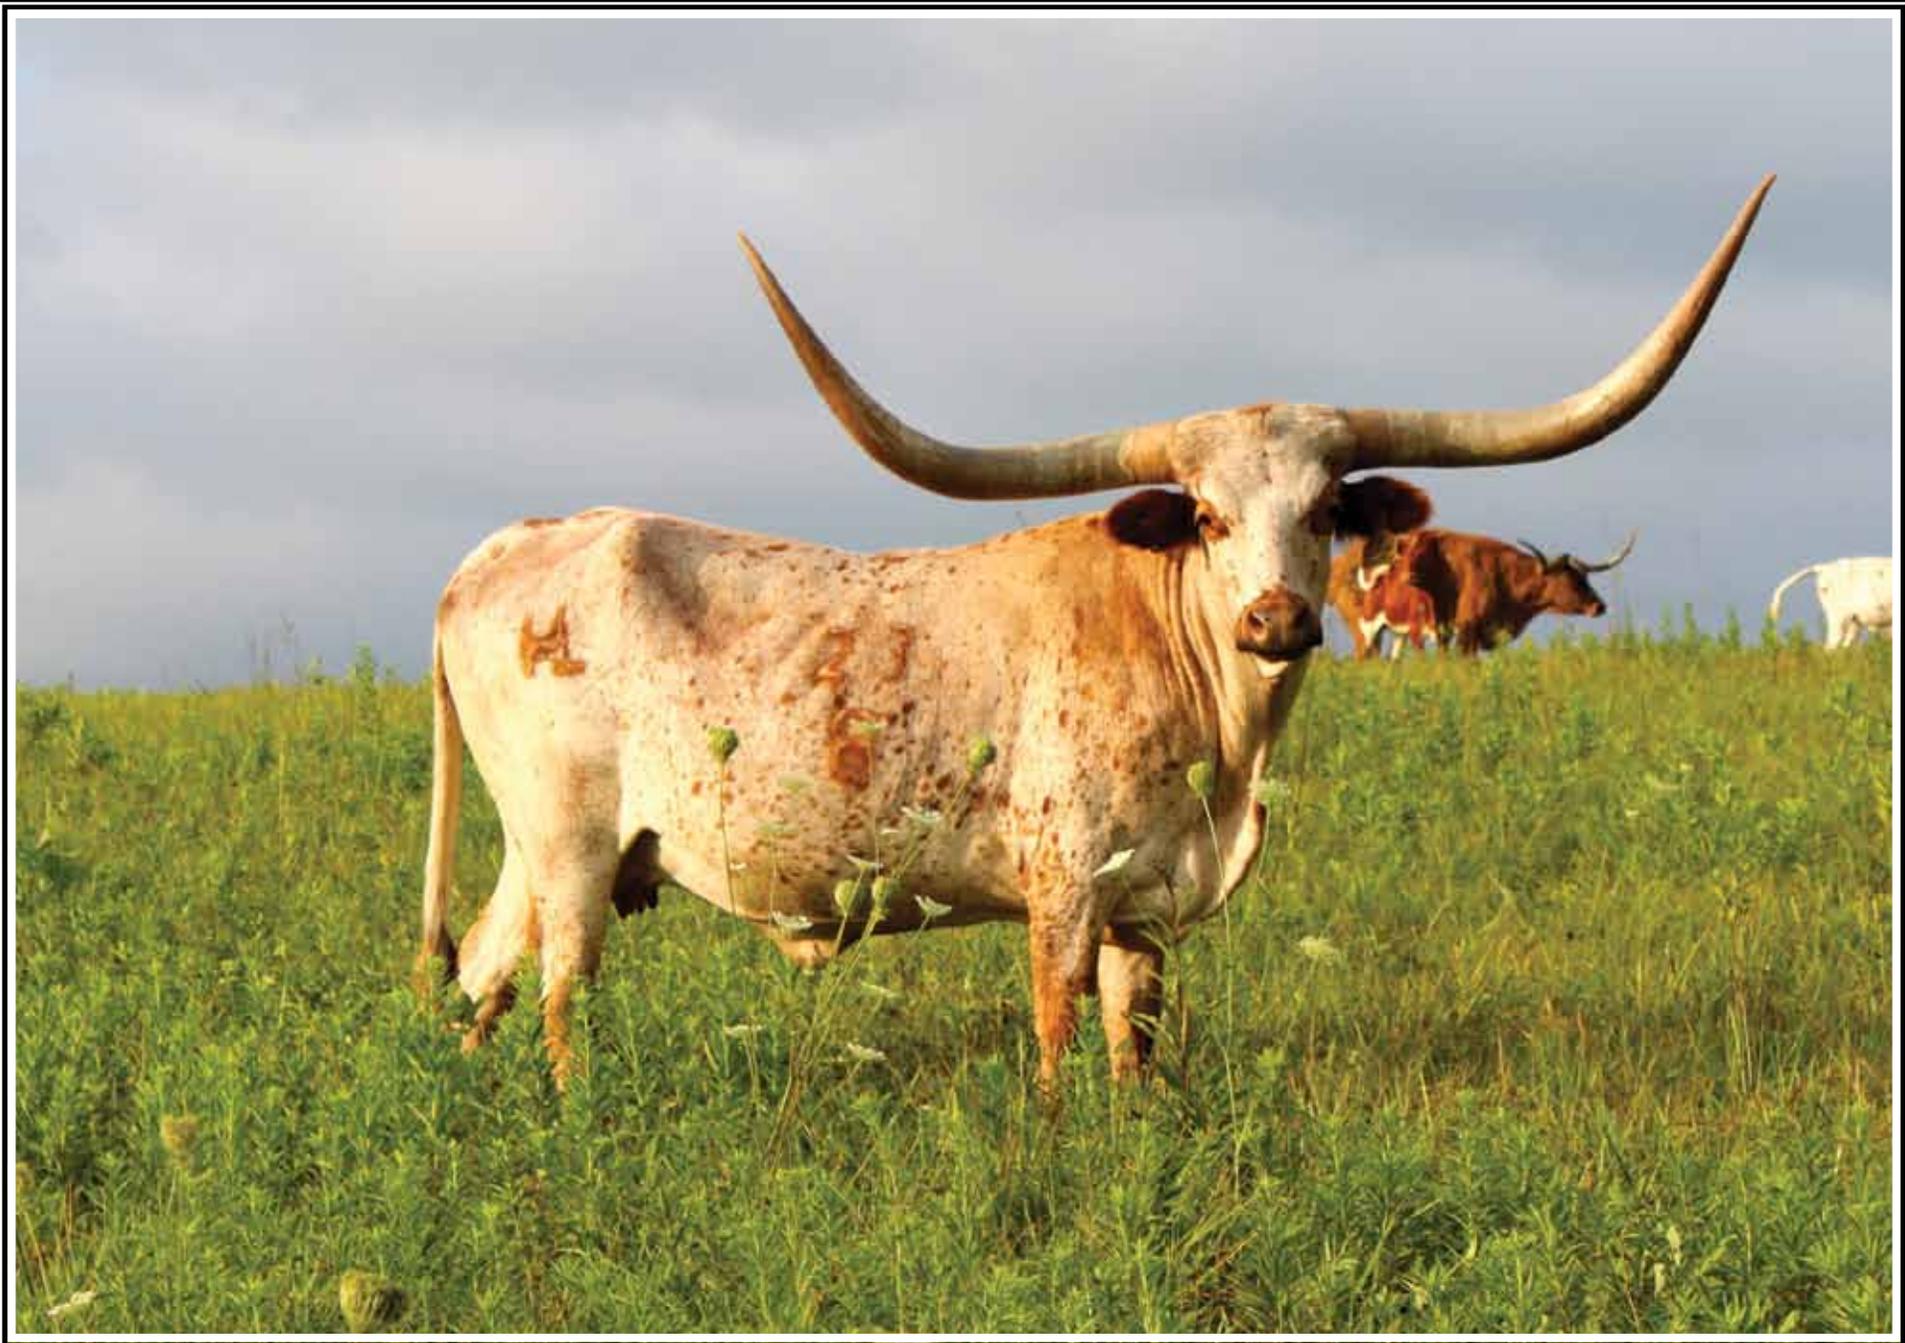

"I believe that the formula for success has three basic components

1. A Goal - w/o a vision people perish. Most people are satisfied with the status quo. Set high and lofty goals.

2. A Plan - fail to plan, plan to fail. This is the hard part.

3. A Burning Desire - you better find the passion or you can never overcome the many obstacles to success.

Lots of people have 2 of the 3, but it takes all 3 to be successful. My Dad shared this with me when I was 14 years old."

“This is perhaps my favorite month. Deer hunting, college football, fall foliage and Thanksgiving.

If we can learn the power of Thanksgiving then we can discover the secret of life. A life lived with a constant attitude of gratitude is a life of happiness, peace and satisfaction.”

In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.
